

Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh CTUAP Celebrates International Women's Day

Every year International Women's Day is celebrated on March 08 globally to celebrate the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. This year UN Women and the United Nations are celebrating, the International Women's Day 2023 under the theme DigitALL: Innovation and technology for gender equality. The Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh celebrated "International Women's Day" in its campus at Kondakaram, Vizianagaram on March 03, 2023. The Chief-Guest of the day Prof. Chilukuri Santhamma, Emeritus Professor, Centurian University, Vizianagaram, addressed and enlightened the gathering with her knowledge and experience. She shared that the greatness lies in following Karma Sidhanta and we have to be grateful to all the people who supported us during our life journey. During his presidential remarks Prof. T.V. Kattimani, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, CTUAP highlighted that behind every successful man are women in various stages of their life. He also emphasized that women should write their own history as till date historical and developmental perspective about women are written by men most of the time. Dr. Sridevi, Chairperson, Women's cell, CTUAP, introduced the theme of International Women's Day. In order to mark the occasion, university had also organized various competitions such as Rangoli, Photography, Painting and Poster making. The students also participated in cultural programs as a part of celebrations. The prizes and certificates were distributed to the students who won the competitions and to participants as well. The faculty members, non-teaching staff students, and of the university participated in the program.

